<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Speakers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8:15—9:00</td>
<td>Check-in Continental Breakfast</td>
<td>Volunteers – both students and adults</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 9:00—9:15       | Welcome                                    | Nina Salmon, Host
                     Director of Senior Symposium
                     Associate Professor of English
                     Matthew Gibson, Executive Director,
                     Virginia Humanities
                     Alison Morrison-Shetlar, President,
                     University of Lynchburg
                     Susan Schewel,
                     Daughter of Rosel Schewel |
| 9:15—10:30      | Panel #1 “Considering Women’s Leadership”  | Laura Hamilton, Founding Executive Director,
                                             Lynchburg Beacon of Hope
                                             Christine Kennedy, Chief Operating Officer
                                             Executive Vice President
                                             Lynchburg Regional Business Alliance
                                             Claire King, President,
                                             Student Government Association
                                             Paula Youra, Professor of Communication Studies
                                             Director of the Center for Professional Communication
                                             Cynthia Ferguson, Director of Community
                                             Engagement and Bonner Leaders, Facilitator |
| 10:30—10:45     | Break                                      | Break/Coffee/Snacks                                                                                                                      |
| 10:45—12:00     | Panel #2 “The Long and Winding Road: Women
                     leading in Democracies”
                     What are the wins and losses
                     around the world?
                     How do women come to political leadership?
                     What issues do women claim?
                     What is the future for women in global leadership positions? | Cheryl Jorgensen-Earp, Professor Emerita of Communication Studies
                                             Ghislaine Lewis, Associate Professor of Communication Studies
                                             Co-chair of the Africana Studies Department
                                             Director for Pierce Street Gateway
                                             Sabita Manian, Professor of International Relations and Associate Dean of the School of Social Sciences
                                             Nichole Sanders, Professor of History and
                                             John Franklin East Professor of Humanities |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Presenter/Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12:00—1:15</td>
<td>Buffet Lunch and Slide Presentation: Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum</td>
<td>Shaun Hester, Executive Director, Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:30—2:45</td>
<td>Panel #3 “Women and Political Leadership”</td>
<td>Maryjane Dolan, Mayor of Lynchburg, Kelly Johnson, former staff assistant to Senator Mark Warner for Roanoke Office and current staff assistant to Delegate Schuyler Van Valkenburgh (Henrico), Jennifer Wocotter, Co-President, League of Women Voters of Lynchburg, Julie Doyle, former chair, Lynchburg City School Board, President, Education and Research Foundation. Treny Tweedy, Lynchburg City Councilwoman, Facilitator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2:45—4:00</td>
<td>Eleanor Roosevelt</td>
<td>Jane Van Boskirk ’70 in her one-woman, first-person play, “Everything I Ever Did Was Accomplished Across a Barrier of Fear: Eleanor Roosevelt” Sharon Foreman, Associate Professor of Sociology, Director, Center for Community “Development and Social Justice, Facilitator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4:00—4:15</td>
<td>Break</td>
<td>Sodas, Water, Coffee, Tea</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4:15—5:00</td>
<td>Keynote: “Leadership Isn’t Limited”</td>
<td>Nikki Giovanni, poet, writer, commentator, activist and educator. She is a University Distinguished Professor at Virginia Tech.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5:00—5:15</td>
<td>Closing Comments—thanks, evaluations, announcements Bio of Rosel</td>
<td>“My Friend and Mentor, Rosel Schewel” Joan Foster</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>How do all these pieces come together?</td>
<td>Matthew Gibson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Community links and leadership Schewel Fellowship Leadership Pillar at UL</td>
<td>Alison Morrison-Shetlar</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5:15—6:30</td>
<td>Reception--Ballroom</td>
<td>Wine, Beer, Appetizers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>