

Congratulations on your grant!

We're excited to be part of your project and hope to be a resource for you beyond the financial award you receive.

Our communications staff is here to help. We're happy to assist with press releases, promoting public events, or sharing news about your project on social media.

This guide includes some resources to make all that work easier for you.

MARKETING YOUR PUBLIC EVENTS

The best way to let us know about events is by using our project update form.

SUBMIT YOUR EVENTS

If email works best for you, that's okay too. You can email us with the event details and relevant media. Please note: We prefer to hear about events at least two weeks in advance.

We will add your grant-funded event to our online calendar, share it in our state-wide e-newsletter, email it directly to our subscribers in your area, and share it on our social media channels.

CREDITING US

We'd appreciate your crediting Virginia Humanities whenever possible. We have a few logo options for you to choose from.

DOWNLOAD LOGOS

If you're having any trouble with the logo or need a version that isn't provided, please email us.

Our primary logo is:

We ask that you try to use this version of the logo first. If it doesn't fit for any reason, feel free to choose one of the other options in the link above.

Our logo color is a deep navy blue. If you need the exact color values, they are:

- CMYK Coated: 87, 70, 22, 44
- RGB: 35, 45, 75
- CMYK Uncoated: 98, 83, 12, 46
- HEX: #232D4B

Finally, some quick dos and don'ts about our logo:

DO use any of the logos in this file
DO use the white logo on dark backgrounds

DON'T recreate the logo from text
DON'T change the color of the logo
